Arafat Sunny has been one of Bangladeshi domestic cricket's most prolific spinners over the past two decades. Since his first-class debut in 2001, aged 15 years, 4 months, and 9 days, he has taken well over 600 wickets.

After years of domestic toil, including 50 wickets at 20.35 during the 2011/12 season, Sunny was finally rewarded with national honours, making his T20 and ODI debut's in February 2014. He went on to take figures of 4-29 and 4.27 in successful ODI's against Zimbabwe, which proved to be his career-best figures at international level.

Sunny was picked for the 2016 ICC World T20 but was later suspended for an illegal bowling action during the tournament. After a few years modifying his action, Sunny enjoyed a stunning 2018/19 domestic season, across all formats. 31 wickets at 25.83 in first-class cricket, alongside chart-topping BPL and National Cricket League campaigns.

He proved he was still amongst the best tweakers in Bangladesh. Whilst a national recall has eluded him since Sunny remains a key figure for the likes of Rangpur Rangers, Dhaka Metropolis, and Abahani Ltd.

It appears his international career has now come to an end, therefore Sunny is seeking opportunities abroad. He is keen to break into the Franchise circuit, and is someone that we'd highly recommend.
