Bright Phiri is a talented batter who skippered the Matabeleland Tuskers in the Pro50 Championship during the 2020/21 season.

An opening bat of some pedigree, Phiri represented Zimbabwe Under-19s and was a key member of the High Performance squad back in 2017. He made his first-class (Logan Cup) debut during the 2017/18 season. Following an inauspicious Logan Cup campaign, playing only 3-matches, he was dropped.

After 2-years in the wilderness, a chart-topping National Premier League tournament for Amakhosi (November 2020), culminating with a Tuskers return. He played 2 Logan Cup matches, then skippered the Pro50 campaign, in a side featuring Zimbabwean players Brian Chari, Ainsley Ndlovu, John Nyumbu, and Milton Shumba, to name but a few.

Not only a batting prospect, who bowls useful off-spin, Phiri is a keen coach who is eager to get fully involved with junior coaching in what will be his maiden trip abroad.
