Cian Fortmann, 18, is an exciting and talented batting all-rounder from KwaZulu-Natal, South Africa.

A stylish left-handed opening batsman, Cian thrives on taking the attack to the opposition from the very first ball. The youngster has recently been named in the KwaZulu-Natal U19 Provincial squad for the upcoming 'Coke Week' National tournament.

In addition to his aggressive batting, Cian is a valuable bowling option with his Slow Left Arm Orthodox spin, and he is also renowned for his outstanding fielding abilities. A product of St Charles College, where he dominated First XI cricket, Cian's performances initially earned him a spot in the KwaZulu-Natal U17 Mynah squad.

Currently playing senior cricket for Howick Cricket Club's First XI, Cian is determined to elevate his game with a season in the EU, setting his sights on higher honours in the sport. His skill set, ambition, and enthusiasm make him a fantastic addition to any club next season.
