Connor Nel is a highly impressive batting all-rounder (seam) from Free State, South Africa.

Nel who has applied for a British Passport, is an exiting top order batsman who can score freely all over the ground and more than handy right arm medium pace bowler.

The South African is tipped for the top, and has played for Free State at every age group level right up until 19s level where he represented them at Coca-Cola Khaya Majola week (December 2023), where he contributed with both bat and ball.

Nel emerged from St Andrew's School as a prolific leader and captain of the Free State team. With 80 games for his school's first team, he showcased versatility across formats. Nel's remarkable century in the North South T20 and a phenomenal spell of 6 wickets for 16 runs, including a hat trick, highlighted his exceptional skills. Crowned Cricketer of the Year and Batsman of the Year in 2023 at St Andrew's, he boasts two centuries and six fifties.

Eager to conquer new horizons, Nel sets his sights on playing in Australia or New Zealand in 2024, adding to his promising cricket journey.
