* Updated profile for 2025 coming soon... ****

Dylan Smith is an exciting leg spinner from Perth, Australia.

Smith who holds a British Passport is a huge talent, and has previously starred in South Australian Premier Cricket for Northern Districts Cricket Club before making the move to Perth in search of higher honours. During his time in Adelaide, the leggie played alongside former Aussie star Mark Cosgrove and took out the Senior Bowling trophy as an 18 year old.

The British Passport holder made his 1st Grade debut at the age of 16, and went from strength to strength in the following years which culminated being picked for the South Australian 19s squad for the National Championships. Smith has since moved to Western Australia in search of a new challenge, and now currently plays for the famous Perth District Cricket Club.

The wrist spinner is a regular net bowler at the touring sides and has been for a number of years both in Adelaide and Perth, and is eager to break into the First Class game moving forward. Smith is now keen to return to the UK for the 2024 season (After a stint for Studley Cricket Club, 2019) and put his British Passport to good use, and ideally look at County opportunities also. The spinners younger brother (Spin bowling all-rounder with a BP also), is keen to travel with him also and play in the same side if league rules allow (or the 2nd XI).

No doubt a serious talent and player that will be in huge demand for 2024 season.
