Fergus Fergusson is a talented all-rounder (seam) from Sydney, Australia.

The Aussie is a front line right arm seamer who bowls with good pace and control, and he is also a hard hitting right handed middle order batsman.

Fergusson has the added benefit of holding a British Passport, and he plays for the famous UTS North Sydney Cricket Club in NSW Premier Cricket, where he has recently made his debut for the 2nd Grade side after strong showings for the 3rd Grade side and for the PG's (Under 21s).

The all-rounder boarded at the famous Kings School, in Sydney and in his final year of school he really stepped up into a leadership role. Fergus had the honour of captaining the AAGPS Combined Schools XI, and also captaining the Combined Independent Schools XI to a NSW All Schools championship and finally vice-captaining the NSW Schoolboys against the QLD schoolboys of which NSW won 2/3 matches.

The British Passport holder has recently signed for Foxton Granta Cricket Club for their Cambridgeshire & Huntingdonshire Cricket League campaign.
