Gregour Carr (22) is an impressive spinner from the UK.

Carr is a young, enthusiastic left arm off spinner who has played Premier League cricket in Scotland since 2019 and played in the Northern Premier league in Lancashire while at University. Gregour has previously played a season in Adelaide in the 2020/2021 season and is looking to play more cricket overseas. Gregour is also a ECB Level 1 coach and is enthusiastic about coaching, especially junior coaching.

Gregour is dedicated and hardworking, often committing his entire summer to cricket. In the 2023 season Gregour averaged 13 with the ball in the Eastern Premier league for Watsonians. In the first half of the 2024 season Gregour averaged 13.09 with the ball with an economy of 2.80 for Garstang Cricket club in the northern premier league.

The impressive tweaker is now keen to play in Melbourne this winter and is potentially happy to source own accommodation.
