Harry Donelan (22) is an impressive spin bowling all-rounder from Cheshire, England.

Donelan is a front line left arm finger spinner and talented right hand middle to lower order batsman, who is a product of the Cheshire County Cricket Club age group system.

The Englishman played the majority of his cricket in Cheshire for Neston Cricket Club in the Cheshire County Cricket League, but in recent times has been starring for Thornbury Cricket Club in the West of England Premier League (WEPL). Last year he took an impressive 35 wickets at 14 with a best of 5-17 for the 1st XI side. The year before he starred for St Fagans in the South Wales Premier League with 30 wickets at 19, and also chipped in with 276 runs at 21.

The youngster has aspirations to play the game at the highest level, and is currently in his last year at Cardiff University where he has played for the UCCE side a number of times. Donelan has also been part of the Herefordshire CCC set up and is eager to nail down a place in the side moving forward.

The Englishman is also a keen and qualified coach, so happy to be part of a clubs coaching structure. He is now seeking a club in/around Melbourne for the coming season.
