Henry Bensch (18) is a talented seam bowling all-rounder from Victoria, Australia.

Bensch is a front line right arm seamer, and hard hitting middle/lower order batsman who is developing into an important cog in the Port Fairy Cricket Club 1st side in the Warnambool District Cricket Association. The Aussie is also eligible for a UK Ancestry Visa.

The all-rounder who has been opening the bowling with Cambridgeshire CCC & CricX Star James Vandereep has impressed this year with 13 wickets at 23, and chipped in with runs when given the chance. Albeit due to the strength of the side has found opportunities limited to showcase that side of his game. The Aussie is no stranger to higher honours and has impressed for the Warnambool District Cricket Association 18s (Captain) side last year and is no keen on making his mark in the senior side.

Moving forward the Aussie has aspirations to play the game at the next level, and sees 6 months playing/training in the UK as next steps on his cricketing journey. No doubt an impressive all-rounder and a player that wont be short of options.
