Henry Woolf is an impressive seamer from Hampshire, England.

Woolf is a tall seam bowler plays for Portsmouth Cricket Club in the South, who has experience opening or bowling in the middles overs. He is known for his ability to keep his economy low whilst picking up key wickets whether he's opening or bowling in the middle.

Woolf is a confident batter who can easily bat between 6-8, when given the chance. He has a safe pair of hands and has always been trusted in the field, whether that's boundary fielding or in the cordon. Last season Henry led USK CC to the title by taking 5/5 in their last must win game for promotion against Penarth, and was a trusty player throughout the campaign going at 2.8 an over whilst averaging 12.4.

The Englishman attended the famous Millfield School is also a qualified and keen UKCC Level 2 coach. He is now keen to head to Melbourne to test himself in a new environment.

Henry will be heading to Melbourne this winter having signed with Parkdale Cricket Club in the Cricket Southern Bayside competition.
