Imtiaz Hossain, or commonly known as "Tanna", is a veteran batting all-rounder who has played 350 domestic matches in Bangladesh.

Making his first-class debut more than two decades ago (2001/02), Tanna has enjoyed an accomplished career representing a host of teams, including Bangladesh A on tours to Australia and England.

Throughout his illustrious career, Tanna has racked up 12,466 runs with 18 centuries, and averages in the late 20s across first-class and List A competitions. With the ball, his off-spin has accounted for 103 wickets averaging mid-30s.

He has skippered various sides, most recently Sylhet Division, with whom he plays alongside CricX stars Abu Jayed, and Rahatul Ferdous.

The all-rounder's long-standing career is now into its third decade, but Tanna remains hungry to continue his run and wicket spree in domestic cricket.

Following the current 2024/25 season, The Bangladeshi all-rounder will head to Northern shores having signed with Gidea Park and Romford for their 2025 Essex League campaign.
