Jack Harding (20) is an impressive left arm quick from Bristol, England.

Harding who is a former England 19s International, who represented his country in a Test match last year in Brisbane, picking up 3 wickets in the process.

The Englishman is currently representing Glamorgan County Cricket Club in their 2nd XI, and has previously played List A Cricket for Somerset County Cricket Club, playing for them in the Royal London One Day Cup back in 2022 as an 18 year old. With best figures of 2-33 against Surrey at the Oval.

The left armer bowls with good pace and swings the ball naturally back into the right hander, he is also a more than useful lower order batter who likes to put bat to ball. At club level the youngster represents Taunton St Andrews Cricket Club in the West of England Premier League, and in recent times he has also been part of the Wales Minor County set up.

Harding has recently signed for powerhouses Sydenham Hillside Cricket Club for their VTCA campaign.
