Jack Redshaw (18) is a hugely impressive all-rounder (seam) from Yorkshire, England.

Redshaw is a massively talented left handed top order batsman, and also front line seamer who is part of the Yorkshire Academy and recently made his debut for Yorkshire County Cricket Clubs 2nd XI, due to his strong showings at club level and in the Academy.

The impressive Yorkshireman impressed with both bat and ball last year for the Academy side with nearly 500 runs and 25 wickets across the 2023 season for them. At club level the all-rounder plays for the famous Scarborough Cricket Club in the Yorkshire Premier League North, last year scoring 599 runs and this year started very well with nearly 250 runs already with a high score of 108. With the ball in 2023 he took 33 wickets at just 17 and already has 10 wickets at 20 this year.

Redshaw is no doubt a huge talented and is in his last year at Scarborough College school, and has been one if not the star performer at the school for the last 24 months. He is also a keen coach and eager to play professional cricket and sees 6 months in Melbourne as critical in his development. He has accepted a place on the world famous International Cricket Programme in Melbourne for the winter.

The all-rounder has recently signed for Surrey Hills Cricket Club in Melbourne for their Eastern Cricket Association Campaign.
