James Wade is a talented seam bowling all-rounder from Yorkshire, England.

The Englishman is a front line quick who bowls with decent pace, and is also a more than handy right handed middle order batter. Wade has recently signed for Acomb Cricket Club in the Yorkshire Premier League, having spent the last 3 seasons playing for Ossett Cricket Club in the strong Bradford League picking up nearly 100 hundred wickets, and chipping in with vital runs.

The quick has recently finished his studies at Leeds Beckett University, where he played in the 1st team throughout his studies. Wade has also represented Wiltshire County Cricket Club at 2nd XI level, he is also a keen and qualified coach. The talented all-rounder also has experience working on the ground.

He is now keen to head overseas at the end of the UK 2025 season. No doubt an exciting player and one we see doing well overseas.
