Khalil Gurbaz is a wrist spin sensation who set Afghanistan domestic cricket alight in recent months.

Playing for Pamir Legends, the tweaker bagged 20 wickets at 16.40 to finish as the second leading wicket-taking spinner in the recent Ahmad Shah Abdali 4-Day Tournament.

Gurbaz, who originally made his first-class debut in December 2019, impressed with his skill, and control, in what was a masterful domestic campaign.

Brother of Afghanistan's star Franchise batter, Rahmanullah Gurbaz, the leg-spinner has plenty of variety in his armoury, including a flipper, and his ripping googly that accounted for several batters during the recent 4-Day Tournament.

To add context to his exploits, slow left-arm spinner, Zohaib Zamankhail picked up 9 wickets at 33.55 during the campaign – yet absolutely dominated for Liverpool during the 2022 season, taking 75 wickets at 13.96.

The Pamir Legends star, who has also enjoyed plenty of white ball success, including the Shpageeza T20, now boasts 58 wickets across first-class and T20 cricket with averages of 28.52, and 22.22, respectively.

It's fair to say Gurbaz is quite the talent who is now looking to showcase his undoubted skills in UK league cricket next summer. He will certainly be one to watch!
