Lucas Ingram is a hugely talented batting all-rounder from Worcestershire, England.

Ingram is a free scoring right handed top order batter who can score all around the wicket, and he also bowls some handy off spin. The Englishman is a member of the Worcestershire County Cricket Club Academy and has represented the club from an early age, and is currently part of the 18s side and is hoping to break into the 2nd XI side this summer.

Ingram is currently in his final year at the famous Bromsgrove School, which is in the top 10 cricketing schools in the country where he is on a cricket scholarship. The youngster has impressed throughout his time at the school, with his highlights being outstanding hundreds against Clifton College and Magdalen School. Outside of his school and county commitments the batter plays his club cricket for Bromsgrove Cricket Club in the Worcestershire Premier League, where he is hoping to impress once his exams and school cricket has finished.

Moving forward the impressive Englishman is planning on attending the famous International Cricket Programme in Melbourne, so is seeking a club near the CBD or Eastern Suburbs where the programme is based.
