Mehran Sanwal is an all action seamer who has made quite the impact in first class cricket since his debut in October 2024.

At the time of writing, he has an outstanding 31 wickets at an average of 18.90 from just five matches played and has demonstrated consistency which may take him on to higher honours. He made an immediate impact on debut, taking 3/39 in the second innings and claimed the wicket of Usman Salahuddin twice in the match. Since then he has been a spearhead for the Bahawalpur attack in all matches with figures of 4/106 and 4/75 against Peshawar, 4/28 and 3/36 against Multan, 4/115 and 2/49 against Rawalpindi and claimed his maiden five wicket haul in his most recent match against Karachi Whites with figures of 1/61 and 5/22 (including the wickets of Pakistan internationals Saud Shakeel and Khurram Manzoor) in the match.

The figures above quite clearly show Mehran's quality but also demonstrate his high fitness levels with the ability to bowl long spells as well as blow away the top order. He also backs himself with bat in hand and is capable of contributing good runs from the middle/lower order with the ability to hit a long ball.

With full season availability predicted, we reckon Mehran would be an excellent choice for any club looking for a genuine strike bowler who can contribute runs with bat in hand. His style of bowling would suit UK conditions perfectly and he would be an excellent choice for any club in 2025.
