Missy Banks is an exciting prospect playing for the Canterbury Magicians in New Zealand Women's domestic cricket.

Despite her age, Banks has enjoyed significant success in her fledgling career to date. At 15, she made her List A debut (February 2017), and has since played 110 matches for Canterbury. She has also skippered the New Zealand U19's (February 2021), and was involved with the NZ North v South match (March 2023).

It's been a sparkling start to Banks' cricketing journey. Not only has she performed well individually, to include an array of accolades (Canterbury Women's "Bowler" and "Players' Player" of the Year in 2021/22), she has been an integral member of the Magicians Hallyburton Johnston Shield (2016/17, 2021/22), and Super Smash (2021/22, 2022/23), titles.

A pace bowling all-rounder of some pedigree, Banks aspires to break into the national side in the not too distant future.

In a view to pushing her game to the next level, Banks is set to venture abroad in 2024 having signed with South Northumberland for their Northumberland Women's Cricket League campaign.
