Mitch Renwick is a seasoned wicket-keeper batter from Auckland, New Zealand, with a wealth of domestic and international club cricket experience. Holding a British passport, he is eager to return to the UK this summer, building on his successful stints in club and County 2nd XI cricket.

Since making his domestic debut for Central Districts in 2016, Renwick has played 84 professional matches across all formats, later representing Otago until 2022. Now involved with Wellington, he has been a consistent performer with the bat, boasting an average in the mid-20s across formats.

His UK experience is extensive. In 2017, he joined the MCC Young Cricketers program, training at Lord's and performing 12th-man duties during Test matches. He returned in 2022 to dominate for Bristol Cricket Club in the West of England Premier League, amassing over 750 runs at an average of 50, including a career-best 192. He also featured for Gloucestershire 2nd XI, gaining valuable County exposure.

Beyond playing, Renwick is a highly qualified coach, holding an NZC Advanced Development Level 2 certification (ECB Level 3 equivalent). Passionate about player development, he is eager to contribute both on and off the field in the UK.

With his blend of professional experience, leadership skills, and coaching expertise, Mitch Renwick is a top-tier candidate for any club this summer. Expect him to make a significant impact both as a player and mentor.
