Mohammad Javed Amanzai (Javad Ahmadzai on cric info) is a talented young batter currently playing first class cricket in Afghanistan for Maiwand Champions.

An elegant top order batter with a technique that is pleasing on the eye, Mohammad has started to make headway in professional cricket after enjoying a stellar junior career. He is a hard working cricketer and has the ultimate ambition of representing his country in the future. His talent would suggest that his first class stats will start to pick up pace over the next couple of years now he has established himself at the top table of professional cricket in Afghanistan. He currently has x4 half centuries in the 13 games he has played, with a high score of 89 and is hungry for more.

He is looking to head to the UK this summer to develop his all round game and contribute some big performances in the same way many other guys from his homeland have done in the recent past in club cricket. He would represent a good value pick for any club seeking a young and hungry batter to add some top order runs for the 2025 season.
