Mohammad Tahir is a talented all-rounder plying his trade in Afghanistan's domestic cricket.

Most recently, the off-spinner and hard-hitting batter, has played for Speen Ghar Region in the Ahmad Shah Abdali 4-Day Tournament.

Tahir boasts an impressive record, particularly in his 18 first-class, and 13 List A matches, where he averages 31.28, and 46.33, with the bat respectively. With the ball, he has been a key performer in the red-ball format with 30 wickets at 32.36.

Throughout his career, he has played with most of the current Afghan international stars, including none other than Rashid Khan. In his prime, Tahir represented Afghanistan A, and the Emerging Players (2016), but has continued to be a domestic regular.

The talented all-rounder is now eager to showcase his ability abroad and has targeted a season playing cricket down under in 2023/24.
