Ollly Jefferies is an exciting batting all-rounder playing for Mildenhall in the strong East Anglian Premier League.

The youngster, who also bowls leg spin, moved to the EAPL powerhouses last summer following club stints with Burwell and Exning (2021), and Eaton Socon (2019-20).

Alongside his club commitments, Jefferies has been involved with the Northamptonshire Academy over the past three years. He made his County 2nd XI debut as a 16-year-old and continues to play for the club. Courtesy of his exploits, in particular his ability in the field, Jefferies has acted as the 12th man for the full Northants side numerous times.

The talented stroke-maker, who also represents Bedfordshire in the Minor Counties competition, is now eager to progress through to a professional contract.

Following his domestic season, and his stint with Taradale in Hawkes Bay (NZ) last summer, Jefferies is currently in Australia having signed with Unley for their 2023/24 Adelaide Turf Cricket Association campaign.

The Englishman is now keen to explore options for next season.
