Osian Catlin (18) is an exciting keeper/batsman from Warwickshire, England.

Catlin is an excellent gloveman and hard hitting right handed middle order batsman who currently represents Derbyshire County Cricket Club at under 18s level. At club level the youngster represents Stratford Cricket Club in the Warwickshire Premier League, and is an integral member of the 1st XI side despite his age.

The impressive gloveman likes to score quickly and all around the wicket. Catlin has aspirations to play the game professionally and break into the Derbyshire County Cricket Club 2nd XI side this year. He is also a qualified coach and keen to be part of a clubs coaching structure when in the UK. The stumper has recently signed up for the world famous International Cricket Programme (ICP) in Melbourne after impressing at the trials, so is seeking a club in the Eastern Suburbs of Melbourne.

The talented stumper has recently signed for Coburg Cricket Club in Melbourne for their VSDCA campaign.
