Pikky Ya France is an experienced all-rounder who has been a stand-out performer for Namibia for over a decade.

A genuine all-rounder, up until his last international match (Nov 2023), Ya France was Namibia's frontline off-spinner who batted in the middle order. He donned the Namibian shirt for well over a decade, making his List A for his country back in 2011. Since then, he has featured in 150 plus matches for Namibia in ODI, T20I, FC, List A, and T20 cricket.

A player that comes recommended by Head Coach, Pierre de Bruyn, Ya France boasts 6 half-centuries for his country, with a highest score of 83. With the ball, he became a key performer for the side in recent years, both with his economy, and wicket-taking ability.

Ya France, who's Namibian side play in the ICC World Cup League Two (2019-23) alongside the likes of Scotland, Oman, Nepal, UAE, USA, Canada, Jersey, and PNG, is now eager to explore opportunities abroad in future. A stand-out performer who represents an excellent acquisition for any side from the 2025 season onwards.
