Rafsan Al Mahamud is a talented batting all-rounder making his mark in Bangladesh's domestic cricket scene, representing Barisal Division in first-class cricket and City Club in List A competitions. As a left-handed top-order batter, he often opened the innings alongside former Bangladesh legend Mohammad Ashraful for Barisal in the National Cricket League.

While Mahamud has yet to fully explode onto the domestic stage despite over 50 matches, he has shown glimpses of his considerable potential. He has compiled eight half-centuries so far, with a highest score of 85 in first-class cricket and 71 in List A games. Known for his flashy and attacking stroke-play, Rafsan also contributes as a reliable right-arm off-spinner, frequently playing a key bowling role in white-ball formats.

Eager to take his game to the next level, Rafsan is now targeting opportunities abroad and is keen to secure a UK club contract for the 2026 season, where he hopes to showcase his all-round talents on a new stage.

Note: Rafsan's eligibility window for UK club cricket (based on 5 FC matches in the last 36 months) remains open until 10 Oct 2025.
