Raghav Dhawan is a mature opening batter that can also bowl when called upon from Himachal in India. He plays for his hometown team Himachal Pradesh.

Entering the domestic scene pretty late, Raghav has shown he can hold his own at the forefront of any batting side and show great variation with his right-arm medium pace.

Raghav has been in sublime form, in both Ranji Trophy (first-class), and Syed Mustaq Ali Trophy (ListA) cricket over the past few seasons.

In 2021/22, he struck 168 runs at 33.60 in his 5 first-class innings. Roll on the 2022/23 season, and he would average 40 in List A cricket before 380 runs at 38 in Ranji Trophy.

The highlight of the latter to date was his magnificent 182 from the top of the order against a strong Haryana bowling attack.

In 2023, the Indian star headed over the ditch to play in Sri Lanka's Major League Tournament (FC) for Galle Cricket Club. In most matches he opened both batting and bowling where he continued to enjoy success.

Raghav is an exceptional player now seeking his maiden season abroad in 2025. With his knowledge and ability, he would certainly be a standout player for any side.
