Rahul Shukla is an accomplished pace bowling all-rounder who has dominated the domestic scene for over a decade.

Throughout his career, dating back to his Ranji Trophy debut in 2009, Shukla has been a stand-out for his State (Jharkhand), featured in the IPL (Mumbai Indians, Rajasthan Royals, Delhi Daredevils), and has enjoyed representative honours with East Zone (Duldeep & Deodhar Trophy), and India A.

A proven match-winner, Shukla is a big, strong tearaway quick, regularly hitting 140kph, and hard-hitting batter from the lower-middle order. He boasts tremendous numbers across the three formats – over 300 wickets, 1,000 plus runs, and career bests of 7-106 / 85* (FC), 6-33 / 50 (List A), and 5-36 / 17* (T20) across the formats.

Shukla is now exploring opportunities outside India with his career coming to a close. He played in the inaugural World Championship of Legends for the victorious Indian side in 2024, but is now now eager to showcase his skills in club cricket next summer A star performer who will be a sought after commodity for the 2025 season.
