Ram Gurung is an exciting all-rounder who has burst onto the Ranji Trophy scene this summer.

The Meghalaya star struck a sensational hundred (132) from the number 3 spot on his Ranji debut (Jan 2024), then two games later, bagged figures of 6-15 with his skilful seam-up.

Gurung had previously made his white ball debuts for Meghalaya toward the back-end of the 2021 calendar year, but had to wait over 2-years for his first-class debut. It's fair to say the wait has been worth it.

On debut against Arunachal Pradesh he would score 132, then produce figures of 3-55 in his second match v Hyderabad. Roll on his third, and he would take out 6 of the top 8 batters (including 3 clean bowled) to record figures of 6-15 against Nagaland.

The genuine all-rounder is quite the prospect who now aspires to progress to higher honours. For now, though, he is eager to secure a UK club for the 2024 season.
