Rikus Allen, 22, is an exciting batting prospect from Free State, South Africa.

Currently part of the CUT Cricket Academy in the MCA Premier League, Rikus is making a name for himself with his impressive run-scoring ability.

As an opening batter, Rikus aims to anchor the innings, guiding his team to victory with solid performances. In addition to his batting, he can provide steady medium pace with the ball and is known for his dynamic fielding.

Rikus is not only focused on excelling as a player but is also passionate about coaching. He has already completed Cricket South Africa's Level One coaching certification and is set to achieve his Level Two.

His ambition is to play at the highest level while building a strong foundation in coaching, Rikus is also currently representing his Province in numerous 3-Day Colts fixtures, meaning Allen is now deemed a pathway player for the EU 2025 season.

An excellent addition for any club, Rikus brings value both on and off the field.
