Sanele Mngayi is a talented young fast bowler from Durban, South Africa.

A right-arm opening bowler, the 23-year-old is an exciting prospect currently playing on the on the Kwazulu-Natal circuit. Playing for Chatsworth United in the Kwazulu-Natal Premier league the tall right armer bowls at lively pace, creating movement both in the air and off the pitch during fiery opening spells.

After spending much of his junior career developing his bowling, Mngayi eventually excelled in the sport, gaining his recognition at U15 level. Given the chance to represent his province, Sanele has gone from strength to strength and eventually secured his spot in the Dolphins Colts team during the 2022/23 season.

Now keen on his first Northern Hemisphere stint, the South African youngster is looking for an opportunity to continue his development and progression. With ambitions to play first-class cricket, the Durban resident is hoping to find a club to facilitate these ambitions, helping him to continue with his hard work and dedication.

Sanele also holds a CSA Level One coaching qualification.
