Shubham Khajuria is, without doubt, one of the best professionals on the market.

An absolute run machine who bowls economical off-spin, Khajuria has dominated both Indian domestic, and UK Premier League cricket in recent times.

A schoolboy prodigy, Khajuria made his Ranji Trophy debut at the tender age of 16, so it came as no surprise to see him feature for India Under-19s in 2023.

He has, ever since, excelled in domestic cricket for Jammu & Kashmir averaging 30.91, 32.86, and 27.16 in first-class, List A, and T20 respectively.

Abroad, however, his numbers are, quite frankly, off the chart. In 2018, he spent his maiden UK stint for Oswaldtwistle Immanuel in the Ribblesdale League racking up 1858 runs at 84.45 alongside 55 wickets at 15.78.

Included in these stats, Khajuria struck 101 sixes, scored 200+ in an innings three times and broke two league records, the first when he achieved the highest individual score in the Ribblesdale Cricket League where he scored 229 off 115 balls and the second while playing as a sub-pro for Furness CC and broke the Cumbria Cricket League record for the highest individual score where he scored 261 off 152 balls.

Khajuria returned to the UK in 2023 where he played for Westhoughton in the Greater Manchester Cricket League. Despite only playing half a season he still scored 746 runs at 93.13 with yet another double (212) alongside 15 wickets.

An incredible performer, who doubles as a keen coach, Khajuria is now seeking a UK return in 2025 and will be a sought after commodity.
