Shubhanh Hegde is an exceptional talent currently playing at the highest level of domestic cricket in India for Karnataka.

A genuine all rounder who bowls quality left arm spin and is a top order batter, Shubhan is quite the option for 2025. He has long been regarded as a future star, rising through the age groups with Karnataka and dominating at each level. These performances unsurprisingly caught the eye of the national selectors and he was rewarded with selection for India Under 19s against England in July 2019. He went on to play 15 games for the 19s and was part of the squad who were World Cup runners up in 2020. He also captained the team many times, proving how highly regarded his character is, in a a team featuring the likes of Yashashvi Jaiswal.

He made his first class debut at the tender age of 17, making an immediate impact with 4/74 in the first innings against Baroda and also batted at number 3. Since then his opportunities at first class level were limited due to a mixture of the stiff competition for places in India and also the selectors keeping one eye on protecting a rare talent. However, he has now began to be selected in all formats and is gathering momentum with his performances in what is widely regarded as the strongest domestic cricket system in the world. He has recently made his first half century and is bowling regularly against some of the best players in the world.

His current success is just reward for his toil and graft in state cricket whilst learning and developing his craft. He has all the talent in the world, his skill set is absolutely perfect for a club cricket professional and we reckon Shubhan may just be one of the best picks available for any club seeking a genuine all rounder who's talent has no ceiling.
