Steven Reingold (26) is a prolific top order batsman from the UK (South African born), who was once contracted with Glamorgan County Cricket Club, and played a handful of 1st XI Professional games for them (Winning the Royal London One Day Cup)

Reingold is fluent right handed top order batsman who also bowls some handy off spin. The run machine has been a heavy scorer in UK club cricket at Premier League level for a number of years, having been the star performer for home club Stanmore Cricket Club in the Middlesex Prem. The batter really has some impressive stats in the strong Middlesex comp, in 2019 racking up 961 runs at 40, 2022 hammering 1214 runs at 86, and a further 942 runs at 58 in 2023.

His dominate spells in London have been interrupted by spells in South Wales around his Glamorgan and recently work commitments. Last year starring for St Fagans in the South Wales Prem with over 800 runs at 40. Reingold has a remarkable 17 1st Team hundreds between the 2 sides since making his 1st XI debut, and not forgetting chipping in with nearly 200 1st XI wickets at a touch over 20.

The impressive 26 year old has also during this time played for the Wales NCCA side, the Cardiff MCCU side and played some games for Middlesex 2nd XI. Reingold is also a qualified UKCC Level 2 coach and is a HCPC Registered Sport Psychologist Working at Glamorgan County Cricket Club as a junior coach and the club Sport Psychologist.

The impressive cricketer is now keen to head overseas for the Australia 2025/26 season. He will be travelling with his partner so will need suitable accommodation. No doubt a serious cricketer and one we see excelling for a club both on and off the pitch. He ideally would like to be in the Gold Coast/Sunshine coast area but very much open to all areas....
