Tom Saunders (22) is a powerful all-rounder (seam) from Dorset, England.

The Englishman is a hard-hitting top or middle order batter who likes to try and take the game away from the opposition quickly, he is also a skiddy medium quick seamer who can influence the game at any time with the ball. At club level Saunders plays his club cricket for Parley Cricket Club in the Southern Premier League.

The all-rounder in club cricket, has nearly 800 runs at a touch under 30 with the bat over the last years and chipped in with nearly 30 wickets. Saunders finished his studies last year at Cardiff Met University, where he has a degree in Sports & Exercise Science

Saunders who is also a qualified coach has played been part of the Hampshire CCC & Dorset CCC Pathway system, and is hoping to break into the Senior Dorset NCCA side this year if his club performances dictate.

The all-rounder has recently signed for Lethbridge Cricket Club for their Geelong Cricket Association campaign.
