*Umer Zeeshan Lohya is an emerging talent looking to break into professional cricket.

He has already featured for Maratha Arabians (2019 - UAE T10), and Overseas Warriors (2022 - Kashmir Premier League) rubbing shoulders with the likes of Yuvraj Singh, Dasun Shanaka, Chris Lynn, DJ Bravo, Lasith Malinga, and head coach, Andy Flower (Arabians), and Asad Shafiq, Azam Khan, and Kamran Ghulam (Warriors).

Holder of a British Passport, the Hertfordshire-based all-rounder of Pakistan origin, boasts an impressive youth career to date, and is now looking to make the transition into ECB Premier League, then Franchise cricket.

A top-order batter who bowls off-spin, Lohya has played age-group representative cricket in Pakistan (Karachi U19s), New Zealand (Horowhenua Kapiti U19s), and England (Northamptonshire U17s, U16s, Middlesex U15s).

Over the past few seasons, he has played his club cricket for Totteridge Millhillians - a combination of first and second eleven cricket.

For 2024, he is looking to move clubs to take on more responsibility, by way of batting up the order and bowling more overs to help develop his game.
